No US-Red War Effort Is Expected

Only speculation can suffice to explain the direct cause of the latest war raging in the Middle East, but it would be safe to predict that the United States and Russia will not become directly involved in the Arab-Israeli conflict.

That's the opinion of Middle East expert Dr. Roy Thoman, professor in the political science department at West Texas State University, who also said the newest conflict appears to have been mistimed on the part of the Arabs.

"It's obvious in the last several months, the Arabs have reason to believe the U.S., through the oil presence, could be moved to the position of bringing pressure to bear on Israel to give up the occupied territory," he said of the time frame moving into the weekend's opening of warfare.

"If one were advising the Arabs, one would suggest the Arabs had a strong hand to play in the diplomatic arena to encourage the U.S. to do something about the occupied territories in exchange for more oil," he said. "If that's the case, one can only speculate that if the Arabs initiated the conflict it wouldn't make a whole lot of sense."

Dr. Thoman said that while the diplomatic route, using their oil as a tool in the emerging U.S. energy crisis to force U.S. pressure on Israel, suddenly the story has shifted and the Arabs and Israelis are interlocked in battle.

"It would have been much better to hold the military power in reserve than to misuse it," he said.

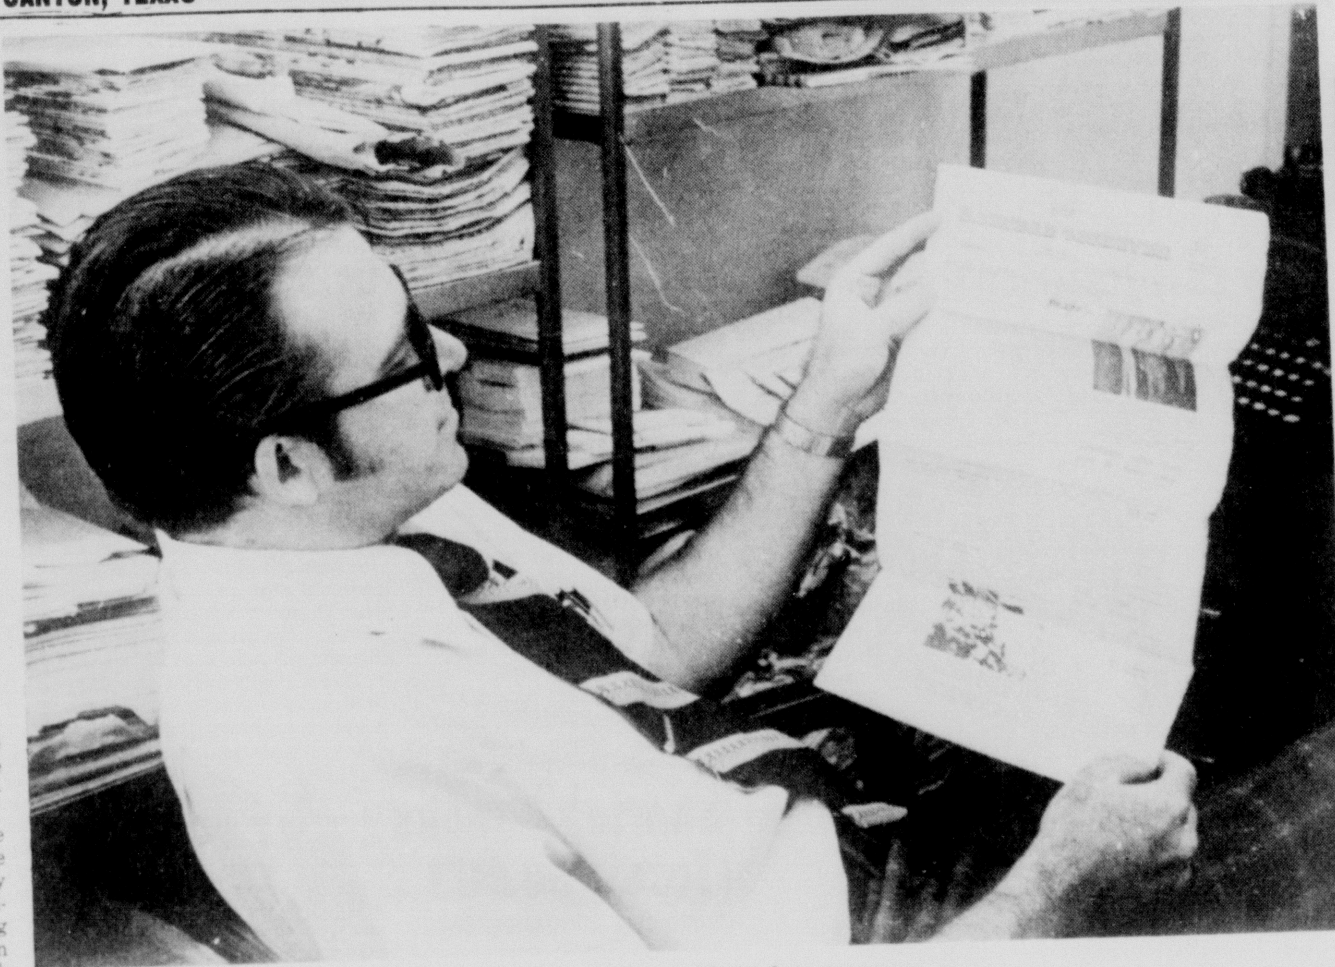

But, Dr. Thoman said, it is possible that internal pressure in Arab countries — pressure in the realm of public opinion — may have forced the Arab nations to take action.

It is also possible that the Israelis felt an attack was eminent and attacked first.

Dr. Thoman said political pressures in the Middle East countries have spawned instability in governments.

It is significant, he said, that the fighting in the Middle East does not seem to involve Jordan, which also lost territory to the Israelis during the 1967 six-day war.

Grand Jury Investigating, But Its Subject Is Not Made Public

The Randall County Grand Jury, after considering a handful of indictments Monday afternoon, went back into session to begin what might or might not be termed an investigation.

Subject of the "investigation" has not been revealed. Grand jury sessions are held in utmost secrecy.

Grand Jury Foreman Jim Underwood Jr. told The News the grand jury is looking into a matter but said "I wouldn't term it an investigation."

Dist. Atty. George Dowlen declined comment on grand jury session Monday afternoon, agreeing only that he could neither deny nor confirm that the grand jury was pursuing a further matter or investigation.

"I will not comment on what has gone on in the grand jury room," he said.

However, The News learned that the grand jury is to meet in a special session next week to continue the matter. They are not scheduled to meet again until early November in their regular sessions.

A News reporter also saw the district attorney leave the grand jury room before 3 p.m. with the grand jurors with a handful of pink indictment forms.

The grand jury went into session at 9 a.m. and left for lunch just before 3 p.m.

It was also learned that the indictments taken from the room just before 3 p.m. were placed on the bench of District Judge Don Dean and were apparently not taken back into the grand jury room when the jury reconvened following their lunch break.

Amarillo Chief of Police Paul Hulseley was seen entering the grand jury room following that break.

The jury adjourned at about 5:10 p.m. and then returned formally their indictments.

Indictments were returned during the day on three Amarillo men charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the early September shooting of a prominent Amarillo youth.

(See JURY, Page 8)

Indictments were returned on Michael D. Bryant, 19, Roy Norton, 19, and Phillip Max Clark, 19, who are charged in connection with the shotgun shooting of David H. Loewenstern of Amarillo.

The three were given examining trials last week in the court of Justice of the Peace W.W. Hancock, who turned their cases over to the grand jury.

Indictments were also returned on Larry Steven Dykes, charged with statutory rape in connection with an incident involving a 12-year-old Gene Howe

Delay Called For ISD Nod

A six-man committee of Amarillo and Canyon civic leaders decided Wednesday afternoon to delay — perhaps indefinitely — appointment of a citizens committee to study the Amarillo School District proposal to annex several sections of Canyon School District land.

Amarillo Chamber of Commerce President Carl Hare and Canyon Chamber President Raymond Raillard will appear before the Canyon School Board, possibly next week, to seek that board's opinion of the appointment of such a citizens committee.

Wednesday's luncheon meeting in Canyon involved Amarillo Mayor Ray Vahue, Canyon Mayor Manly Bryan, Randall County Judge Woody Pond, Potter County Judge Branch Archer, and Raillard and Hare.

The meeting had been called primarily at the request of Hare, who, acting on a request from the Amarillo School Board, met with Amarillo officials several weeks ago to discuss forming the committee which met Wednesday.

The purpose of the Wednesday meeting was to appoint a citizens committee of residents from each school district to study Amarillo's proposal that it annex several sections of land now in the Canyon district.

The school districts have been negotiating for several months on the land and each district has made a proposal. Thus far no specific agreement has been reached.

Hare and Raillard are to appear before the Canyon board to see:

*if a citizens committee were appointed as planned the school board would consider its studied recommendations

*if some other route to resolve the problem is available

Hare told the five officials Wednesday that it is likely a petition seeking annexation of the land by

Poff Criticizes College Systems

Linking the current trend toward incorporating state colleges into systems with the real story behind the placement of a diagnostic animal laboratory in Amarillo, State Rep. Bryan Poff Tuesday morning criticized efforts by major colleges to expand their campuses and thus their political power.

The major political power in the state of Texas, Poff told students in a government class at West Texas State University, is the University of Texas system, which ties colleges in the major metropolitan areas of the state together.

Poff, who heads the state legislature's subcommittee on higher education, said he opposes the expansionary trend, the trend which sees several colleges in south Texas trying to combine into a system, and a trend which sees Texas Tech attempting to form a system which would ultimately encompass WTSU.

In fact, Poff said a lobbyist for Tech asked his subcommittee to pass a bill authorizing that university to study the need for a system which would include WTSU.

"That bill is still sitting on my desk back in Austin," Poff said. He said, however, a bill has been passed which authorizes a general study of the need for university systems in general in the state.

Poff, who pushed for a bill

Petitions Would Call Liquor Vote

Petitions to call a local option election in Canyon and the Southern portion of Randall County were issued for circulation Tuesday afternoon to a group of students at West Texas State University.

Charlie Cullen, senior student from Canyon, picked up the petitions at the county clerk's office after presenting a petition seeking the issuance of the petitions.

The petitions now being circulated call for an election to decide whether all alcoholic beverages including mixed drinks will be sold in traditionally-dry Canyon.

The petitions will primarily be circulated on the WTSU campus, according to Cullen, who believes he has enough voters on the campus to swing the election.

Cullen said he believes sale of alcoholic beverages in Canyon would increase university enrollment and make Canyon a more attractive place for location of families.

Cullen said he believes the majority of students on the university campus favor the sale of beverages here and he noted that with the 18-year-old vote, they could swing the election in favor of sale.

But, before the election can even be called by Randall County commissioners, Cullen must get 1500 signatures on the 500 petitions he's circulating.

That, he says, may prove harder than voting Canyon wet. Nevertheless, he and his group of helpers have set up booths in the buildings with bulk of student traffic on campus and plan to circulate the petitions in the local community as well.

Cullen has 30 days to obtain the necessary 1500 good signatures.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton noted that the new Texas law on liquor petitions makes it difficult to petition for an election. The law required that those who sign the petition sign their name and address as listed on the county's voter registration lists and that their voter registration number be written in the same handwriting on the petition.

Thus, before anyone can sign the petition, they must be registered to vote in justice precinct 1, the precinct in which the election is sought.

The petitions must be presented to Hutton by Nov. 8 and they will be certified and presented county commissioners on Nov. 10.

If the petitions are certified, the commissioners are obliged to call the election for a date not less than 20 nor more than 30 days following Nov. 10.

That means, Hutton said, that the election will be called some time during the first week in December, well before the time students might go home for the Christmas holidays.

The area covered by Justice precinct 1 lies south of McCormick Road, east of the Umbarger area and in a jagged line to the west.

A recent election in the Umbarger precinct resulted in that area going wet and a year ago a similar election resulted in a wet South Amarillo area.

The Canyon area precinct is the only dry precinct in the county.

A move last fall to circulate petitions in Canyon failed and no election was set last fall.

City-County Contract Negotiation Proves Hard-working Session

Contract negotiations between Randall County and the City of Canyon began Monday afternoon with a marathon 3½ hour session which ended with only a blunt statement issued by the representatives of each entity.

While a member of The Canyon News staff was allowed to attend the session, he was asked not to take notes.

County Commissioners John Fulgenzi and Paul Lindsey and City Commissioner Jim Christopher and Mayor Manly Bryan issued a statement saying the representatives had met and had discussed primarily the city's proposal for a contract on joint services.

The negotiating session followed recent action by both governmental entities to appoint a negotiating team to work out a contract between city and county on how much each should pay for services each provides the other.

Services involved include fire service, library service and public dump ground service for the county and jail and communication facilities for the city.

The general tenor of the negotiating session was one of hard bargaining as the four representatives, along with City manager George Louder, eyed, proposal by proposal, Louder's early summer study which indicated the city is short-changed in the providing of joint services under the current agreement.

Nixon Can Name Veep With Vote

Last year the Vice President threw in the ball for the first World Series game. This year, he threw in the towel.

Spiro Agnew's resignation as Vice President of the United States Wednesday will not leave a gaping hole in the executive branch of government, according to Professor Dave Matthis of the

The meeting ended with representatives of the county vowing to prepare a counter-proposal to be presented in another negotiating session later this month.

The four representatives did discuss the possibility of Randall County assuming law enforcement responsibility for the city as well as the county.

department at West Texas State University.

Matthis, whose specialty is Constitutional questions, said the 25th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution provides that the President shall now nominate a vice president, but before his nominee may take office he must be given a confirmation vote by a majority of both the

(See NIXON, Page 7)

In general during the meeting, Louder and Christopher and Bryan outlined the proposals put forth by Louder in his study last summer.

That study suggests that each entity pay the entity providing the service for that service on a use basis.

Based on usage, the study says, the city would owe the county $9703 for jail and communications facilities.

The county would owe the city $18,673 for fire service extended to county residents, $3519 for library service, and $7433 for the dump ground.

Thus, the county would owe about $19,900.

Louder has also drawn up a contract basically incorporating the principals evolved in the study.

The problem of services extended by the city to the county and the county to the city has cropped up several times in recent years.

About five years ago, when Lindsey was mayor of Canyon rather than a county commissioner, the city sought county

Joint Law Office Eyed By County

Consolidation of the Randall County sheriff's department with the City of Canyon Police Department, with the sheriff heading the joint office and the county commission in control, was proposed Monday by County Commissioner Jim Fletcher.

Fletcher, citing examples of such consolidation in other Texas counties, said money might be saved by the joint effort at law enforcement. His suggestion came at the end of a two-hour county commission session.

WT Eyes Federal Bdg. For Amarillo Ed. Center

By DOTTY GRIFFITH

DALLAS — West Texas State University Regents moved one step closer to establishing an Amarillo center for continuing education Monday and provided funding for a stepped up effort to recruit more students.

Beset by the fourth straight year of decreasing full-time enrollment, Regents authorized University President Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins to pursue obtaining the old Amarillo Federal Building to house an upper level, graduate and non-credit night school. Watkins was also authorized to seek approval for setting up the center from the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, which must approve location of any new college.

They okayed spending almost $77,000 during the fiscal year for student recruitment and promotion of the university. Approving what Chairman Cloyce Box termed a $15,000 "slush fund," regents set aside the money from state appropriations to be used at the discretion of Watkins.

Watkins told the board he would see U.S. Sen. John Tower in Washington Wednesday in hopes of obtaining the old Federal Building free of charge from the General Services Administration. Estimated costs to renovate the structure for classroom use is $100,000, he said.

Complete cost estimates for establishing the center are impossible at this time, he said. Other than the salary for a director, "the rest (faculty salaries and operating expenses) would be reasonably self-supporting," from the tuition charged, he said.

In addition, the regents okayed the permanent location of Keith Winter, director of development, in the Amarillo center. Watkins will also establish a part-time office in Amarillo. He will maintain an office in Canyon.

In discussing the funding of recruitment efforts, the regents set the development office budget at $17,465. The remainder of the $60,154 allocation will go to

Land For New Annex To Be Eyed

Randall County Commissioners will meet in special executive session at 9 a.m. today to consider acquiring a tract of land in South Amarillo, apparently for construction of a new South Amarillo courthouse annex.

County Judge Woody Pond said discussion will center around land acquisition, a legal subject

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Amarillo School District wants 11 sections of our real estate and I am for giving it to them under certain conditions.

The first condition is that they pay for it.

Then we should discuss a broad base of cooperation between the two communities for the future.

Primarily I am for saying goodbye to the 11 sections simply because if we keep it we may find Amarillo running our school system down the road some time.

Until the late 1950s Randall County was a rural county and country folks pretty much called the shots.

They kept control until there was such lopsided representation that Amarillo could no longer be denied their share of commissioners on the court.

Since then the county has been operating with something less than overwhelming concern for what happens south of the Amarillo city limits.

I can see this same thing happening to the school system. I have no desire to see Canyon High School become a branch of an Amarillo school system.

Leadership in Amarillo has improved in the past few years. The city has been revived and is attracting industry but the leadership there sometimes gives the appearance of thinking Amarillo can survive without the rest of the Panhandle from which it draws 65 percent of its retail trade.

Wipe out the Panhandle and you wipe out Amarillo.

But did you know that some of the top leaders in Amarillo are myopic to the extent they think the Amarillo community is bounded by the city limits?

I was told only this week that firms outside the city limits — and this includes Canyon — are penalized by 5 percent when making bids on supplies for Amarillo College.

This is shortsighted and unwise and may even be illegal. It is also a practice that penalizes the taxpayer.

If we're going to discuss metropolitan cooperation then let's talk about cooperation across the board. Let's work together for a better Canyon, a better Amarillo and a better Panhandle.

Father Tash Opens Parents Eyes

By CAROL YOUNG

"Most kids are going to try marijuana, so parents... don't blow your cool," Father Joseph Tash advised parents in a "pull-no-punches, eye opening speech" on drug awareness, Monday night at the Rex Reeves PTA meeting.

On marijuana, a member of the hemp family, Father Tash gave this information, "There is no physical addiction to marijuana. You can't get hooked on it. A psychological dependency is developed. They like it, so they need it. Like cigarettes and coffee. The problem is that the more they smoke, the greater the reverse tolerance — they need less for stimulation. Marijuana produces a 'high' that drops down to a depressed state. Almost for certain, no two people will experience the same physical and psychological effects."

Citing an incident that occurred after Operation Intercept had cut short the flow of Mexican marijuana to the market, Father Tash told the audience that "Some marijuana came on the scene that was half marijuana and half dried cow dung. They said it didn't taste any different, but the smell almost killed them." Marijuana is frequently mixed with other properties to make it go farther. Some has been found that was laced with strychnine, but it was not a lethal dose. "When you buy marijuana today, you don't know what you are getting."

The new laws on marijuana, passed recently, met with approval from Father Tash. "Before, there were a lot of people that got busted, that just happened to be in the wrong place at the wrong time. They were victims of circumstances." The new laws on possession make possession on 2 oz. or less a misdemeanor with a fine of $500 or six months in jail, usually dismissed. For possession of 4 oz., the fine is $1000 or one year, and is a misdemeanor. Possession over 4 ozs. draws a sentence from 2 years to life imprisonment.

As yet, there is no actual proof as to the long range effects of marijuana. On the west coast, it is theorized to cause damage to chromosomes, but on the east coast, this is not the case. "There are two schools of thought. Also, it is believed that there are cancer causing tars in marijuana that are not in cigarettes," Father Tash explained.

The cases Father Tash can relate on heroin addicts are numerous. One that he cited for

Two To Be Honored As Distinguished

A woman pipeline research chemist and a specialist in heart diseases are Distinguished Alumni of 1973 at West Texas State University.

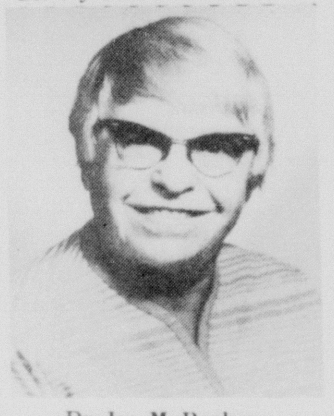

Dr. Ivy M. Parker of Austin received her first formal education in a one-teacher school, she was graduated from Tucuman High School.

Dr. Parker enrolled in West Texas State and with parental urging majored in home economics. However, before her freshman year was completed she had changed her major to chemistry.

During her sophomore year she won the $500 first prize in the national Garvan Essay Contest for a paper on corrosion.

She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1928 and went on to the University of Texas to earn a master's and a Ph.D. in chemistry in 1935.

A trade publication, Petroleum Today, wrote in 1966 that Dr. Parker was the first woman in the University of Texas' history to receive a doctorate in chemistry.

The magazine quoted her in an article headlined, "The Gentle Pipeliner."

"I might never have finished, but it was the middle of the Depression. It was hard enough for a man to get a job, and a woman chemist didn't stand much of a chance."

Dr. Parker returned to her father's ranch and was contemplating a teaching position when she received a letter that set her on her oil industry career.

She went to work at $125 a month for Shell Oil Co. in Houston in 1936, first as a chemist and later as foreman of the analytical laboratory at its refinery. In 1943 she left Shell to go with J.S. Abercrombie Refinery at Old Ocean, Tex.

At the first annual meeting of the National Association of Corrosion Engineers in 1944 she presented a paper titled "Refinery Corrosion Problems." The paper was published in the National Petroleum News that year.

Also in 1944 she was named the first editor of Corrosion (now Materials Protection), the official publication of the National Association of Corrosion Engineers. She retired as editor in 1965.

She went to work for Plantation Pipe Line in 1945. During her early years in Houston she also found time to teach organic and general chemistry at the University of Houston and to serve on the state board of the Texas Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Dr. Leachman was graduated by Amarillo High School in 1944 and after two years at Amarillo College he enrolled at West Texas State, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in 1949. He entered Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, where he won several honors.

He is a member of many professional societies in both the United States and several Latin American countries. Among the honors he has received are Certificate of Merit from the Chamber of Commerce of Lima, Peru, for humanitarian service; Award of Merit from the Mended Hearts of Puerto Rico; an award presented by the president of Italy; and membership in the National Register of Prominent Americans and International Notables.

Dr. Leachman has been a Diplomate, American Board of Internal Medicine since 1962, and Diplomate, American Board of Cardiology since 1965.

Among his many appointments are consultant in cardiology, Texas Children's Hospital, Houston; attending physician, Ben Taub City-County Hospital, Houston; consulting cardiologist to the U.S. Air Force, San Antonio; and professor of internal medicine, Baylor College of Medicine.

Sharing Checks Total $50,000

The City of Canyon and Randall County received their second federal revenue sharing checks of the year Tuesday, checks totaling about $25,000 each.

The check received by the city totalled $27,148. The amount is about $1000 more than the check received in July for the first half of the year.

The county received a check for $25,078, again about $1000 more than received by the county in July.

City commissioners have set aside their revenue sharing money, allocated over a five-year period by Congressional action, entirely to construction of a new civic center building for Canyon. Already, plans are proceeding on the civic center, an architect has been hired, and the commissioners are in the process of examining detailed schematics of a building proposal.

The county commissioners have also allocated the remainder of their federal money to a construction project. They are considering either remodeling the South Amarillo courthouse or purchasing a lot and starting over on construction. No decision has yet been reached.

The county, while it is setting aside the remainder of its money, has already spent much of the first two year's checks on salaries and employee benefits.

salaries for secretary, recruiter,
student assistants and Winter.
"We hope to develop funds, donations, gifts and projects," Box said. "But, its primary purpose is really to recruit students."

A $9000 ceiling was approved to pay for services provided by the West Texas Ex-Students Association. Of that total, $1820 is earmarked for use by the administration and the development office. The money will be used primarily to buy computer time for the compilation of mailing lists of West Texas exes to enhance recruitment and fund raising efforts.

The total directly applied to recruitment and university promotion is $76,974.

With the discouraging news from university administrators that the full-time student enrollment was down to 5428 this fall, regents stressed the need for more students throughout the two-hour meeting at the Marriott Motor Hotel here.

Vice President for Financial Affairs Virgil Henson reminded the board that the push for students will be very important through summer and fall 1974 and spring 1975, when the state legislature next meets to consider appropriations for the school.

Box called the planned exen-ditures "a good investment," which takes the university into the area of recruitment, heretofore untried.

In explaining the uses for the money, Box said the $17,465 operating budget for the office of development would be used primarily for "travel and entertainment." The $15,000
"slush fund" to be spent by Watkins would be used "for promotion."

Regents will not have final approval over Watkins' spending but the state auditor will be re-

financial support in the dump

the city asked the county to purchase a $30,000 fire truck which quired to go over the account annually.

The WTSU president's fund will be used for such things as a buffet and dance set Nov. 17, designated Junior College Day, described by Watkins as a "function to aid recruitment of students."

Regents also approved spending $16,250 to establish the office of University Legal Counsel.
They hired Miss Karen Johnson, who has held a similar position at Texas Tech, as university attorney.

University administrators were told to proceed at full speed in trying to obtain a $53,000 emergency grant from the Governor's Office to help pay for repairs to the athletic dressing rooms destroyed by fire Sept. 21.

At the urging of Watkins, advertising prohibitions written into a publishing agreement between the WTSU student newspaper, The Prairie, and The Canyon News were deleted.

"I just had a feeling that we were getting too puritanical," said Watkins of the provision which restricted the sale of liquor, gambling, horse racing or cigarette ads for publication in The Prairie.

Quipped Chairman Box about his support of Watkins' recommendation: "It's not, of course, just because I have a race horse — or what might be called a race horse."

Burgess Home On Tour

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Burgess, 1402 Creekmore, described as a "do-it-yourself" house by Mrs. Burgess, will be the third home featured on the University Study Club Home Tour, Oct. 14.

Mrs. Burgess explained why she calls the house do-it-yourself, "we built it entirely ourselves. I was the designer and Sidney was the builder."

Rough wood shingles give the Cape Cod styled home a New England flair that sets off the red brick and deep cream trim.

A formal entry hall with two outstanding antique pieces, leads to the den. On the left of the entry hall is the living room, and to the right is a stairway to the bedrooms upstairs.

The living room is carpeted with a deep shag in shades of beige. Two velvet and wood chairs described by Mrs. Burgess, "These are not antiques, but they do have the teeth marks of our engineer son still showing in them," are placed in front of a large picture window. In the corner is an antique up-right music cabinet that she re-finished in antique red. A landscape painted by Mrs. Burgess hangs over the sofa, and the room is decorated with many small antique items that have been collected and given to her as gifts. Two Pembroke style tables are pieces she is especially proud of. Mr. Burgess made them by hand and "They are made to the exact specifications of the originals."

A large brick fireplace centers the spacious den that is carpeted in the same shag as the living room. The entire east wall is composed of built-ins and shelves in a warm wood shade that was entirely hand crafted by Mr. Burgess. These shelves house several antique collections among which are plates and shaving mugs. On the north wall of the den there is a rosewood melodian dating to 1847. The furniture in the den is arranged around the fireplace in an intimate arrangement with an old trunk lined with even older sheet music as a coffee table. Tweeds and casual types of fabric give the den a liveable feeling.

In the same large room, is a dining area that has a round antique table with matching chairs made by Mr. Burgess. A marble topped buffet and walnut teacart are two other pieces in this room that Mrs. Burgess plans to show people on the home tour.

The kitchen is done in blue and white, Mrs. Burgess' favorite color scheme. "Everyone knows me by my love of blue and white." Wallpaper in a blue and white

Fraternity Gives Blood To Shriners

Members of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity in Canyon were scheduled to participate Saturday morning in a blood drive sponsored by the Khiva Shrine in Amarillo.

Shriner Bill Mayfield of Canyon said it was hoped about 45 pints of blood would be donated by members of the fraternity.

The Amarillo Shrine goal in its blood drive is 500 pints with credit for the blood going to the Shrine Burn Institute in Galveston, to which several Canyon youngsters have gone for treatment.

Xi Kappa Zeta Chap Of BSP Finalizes Plans For Pageant

The Xi Kappa Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met for a regular meeting in the home of Sammie Stroud.

Finalization of plans for the Little Miss Canyon Pageant were the order of business for the meeting.

Sammie Stroud gave a program on the sense of hearing. Those present were Rosetta Baer, Bettie Hunter, Jean Irwin, Jeannie Kuhlman, Betty Sue Patterson, Sally Pully, Lucille Robinson, Sammie Stroud, and Kay Thomas. Velva Hord, from an Amarillo chapter, was a guest.

Tri-County Rural Youth Day

The rural youth of Randall, Potter and Carson Counties will be treated to a day-long roster of outdoor sports, classes on topical issues, and an old-fashioned singalong and square dance during "Work and Play Day," slated Saturday, Oct. 20 at the St. Francis Parish Hall east of Amarillo.

The event is being sponsored by the Farmers Union Rural Youth of the three counties and will be open to all rural young people between the ages of nine and 18 years, said Betty Fischbacher, CHS sophomore and member of the senior advisory council of the tri-county organization.

Registration for the event will be conducted at 9 a.m.

Among classes to be offered during the day are those dealing with human relations, oral communication, leadership and rural youth organizations.

Instructors will be Mrs. Jan Brister, professor of business administration at Amarillo College; George Schmitz, employee at the Pantex Plant, and Andrea Wooten, Texas Tech University freshman active in the rural youth programs of several states.

Directing outdoor sports events will be Clarence Bertrand, and a workshop in crafts will be instructed by Charles Detten, art teacher at Bonham Junior High School in Amarillo.

John Brazil, Randall County agent will direct an evening dancing workshop featuring instruction in folk and square dancing, and other popular dance steps.

All participants are asked to bring a sack lunch and 15 cents for a soft drink. Miss Fischbacher said. Parents of rural youth are requested to bring a covered dish for a dinner slated at 6 p.m.

Any Farmers Union youth who is interested in obtaining a $1,000 Life Insurance Policy for participation in the one-day program is asked to bring $1, Miss Fischbacher said.

Those interested in attending the event may obtain further information from Miss Fischbacher.

floral sets off the unusual window treatment of scalloped blue shade with matching cornice board and white sheers tied back over the shade. Other features of the kitchen that are different are a set of "framed shelves" over the sink and the absence of shelves in the cabinets under the white counter. Various sizes of slide out racks and bins or drawers have been employed to ease the process of picking canned goods and pots and pans. A dinette set with a small round table and Bentwood chairs from Poland cushioned in fabric that matches the window shade, is a less formal dining area for the Burgessses.

In the hall leading to the master bedroom is a door that leads to a basement. "It's really a storm cellar," because I'm a scaredy cat," said Mrs. Burgess.

"We plan to make the 12 x 20 room into a museum for our primitive antiques that are not very pretty, but are still interesting." Some of these primitives will be things that the Burgess forefathers brought with them to the plains in pioneer days.

Off the same hall is a utility room that houses a laundry and sewing center as well as plenty of storage. A desk with built-in shelves above it is also included.

In the master bedroom, carpeted in a soft blue is a large bed that was retrieved 30 years ago from some friend's chicken house and restored. A marble topped dresser of walnut that belonged to Mr. Burgess family, is credited as being the start of the Burgess antiquing kick, and is still used by the Burgessses. The bathroom off the master bedroom is done in blue and white and features back-to-back vanities. These were used to give both a separate place to get ready for the day as they both leave at the same time.

The two bedrooms upstairs belonged to the Burgess son and daughter who are both grown and married. However, Mrs. Burgess still refers to their rooms as "the children's rooms."

The girl's room sports a massive antique bed and Mrs. Burgess' doll collection. Cornice board and matching shade in a floral print, with sheers tied back over the shade are a window treatment used in the room.

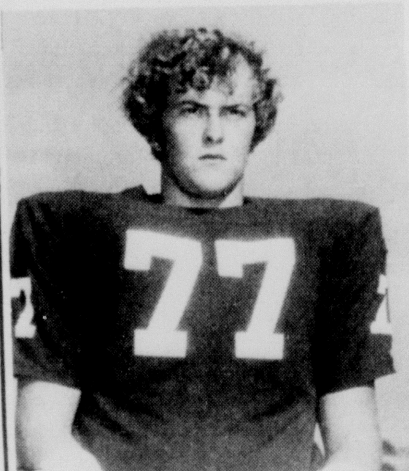

In the boy's room is another antique bed and an old grocery store cookie display rack made into a bookcase. The window treatment in this room is unique. A squared, cut-out, cornice board that matches the fabric of the shade and bedspread gives a masculine look to the room. The use of a box down either side of the window, giving the effect of a drape, is covered in the same fabric.

The upstairs bath is done with a patchwork wallpaper in bright pastel shades. "The kids say our homes are too 'blah' and 'why don't you put some color in them?', so we did," said Mrs. Burgess.

For those on the home tour seeking ideas and encouragement to do their own thing, the Burgess home should be of interest. Also, the antique buff will find this home well worth visiting.

Tickets for the Home Tour are on sale now and are available from any member of the University Study Club or by calling Mrs. John Womack, chairman, at 655-4339.

Feast Day Observed

By REBA RAE
GREETINGS FROM UMBARGER. It's only a few short weeks 'til we have our annual German sausage dinner, Nov. 11, so keep that Sunday open and come eat with us.

TWO OF the best known Feast days of our Church are celebrated in October, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary and the feast day of Saint Isidore, the patron Saint of farmers and farm workers. To commemorate the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, the sixth and seventh grade Confraternity of Christian Doctrine class participated in a special celebration last Sunday just before the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Banners, which represented the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary, made by the class, were carried in procession to the Altar, while Debbie Ramaekers explained the meaning of each mystery. The entire congregation took part in the celebration by singing songs to the Blessed Mother.

TO HONOR SAINT ISIDORE, St. Mary's Church has erected a shrine in his name. With all the problems that the farmers are facing these days, it's good to know that they can ask him to intercede for them. Rosary services are held each morning before the 8 o'clock Mass and everyone is invited to join in the service.

LAST SUNDAY, DURING the 10:00 Mass, Miss Sharon Allen was Baptized by Monsignor Schafle. Sharon is the third member of her family to be Baptized here in St. Mary's Church in recent months. Godparents are the R. E. Friemels. She is the daughter of Curley and Ramona Allen, of Amarillo. We would like to say "Welcome" to our parish, Sharon.

MR. AND MRS. Conrad Westhoff celebrated both their birthdays on Mrs. Westhoff's birthday, Oct. 6. Mrs. Leo Artho and children, from Dalhart, came for the event. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Meyer and family, from Umbarger. A belated "Happy Birthday" to both of them.

CONGRATULATIONS TO SHARON Lindemann, daughter of Snooke and Odessa Lindemann. Sharon was one of the fifty Junior High students who were installed as members of the National Junior Honor Society Tuesday evening, Oct. 2, in the Canyon Junior High School auditorium. To be eligible for this honor, a student must have an overall average of 90 and be ranked in the upper third of their class. Good work, Sharon.

RECENT GUESTS OF Frances Grotgeut were Mr. and Mrs. Art Lundgren, of Holiday, Florida. They have been visiting in Wales, North Dakota, where they used to live. They visited here for several days. Mrs. Lundgren is a first cousin to the late Anton Grotgeut.

WE WOULD LIKE to wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. Emma Brandt, who is a patient in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. MRS. LAURA HARTMAN has returned from a foliage tour in Ledata, Colo. She went with Mrs. Noma Clouch, of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clouch of Amarillo. Laura said that the color is beautiful this year.

LAWRENCE AND ALPHA Washington and granddaughter, Sherlyn and her daughters went to Austin last Sunday to see their daughter, Edith. Edith underwent surgery Monday. The Washington's came home on Wednesday. We wish Edith a speedy recovery.

MR. AND MRS. Estel Van Meter and Otis went to Enid, Okla., last weekend, to visit their daughter, Karen. They also visited other relatives while in Oklahoma. The Van Meter's live on the old Masterson-Stinnett ranch, south of Umbarger.

IF YOU HAVE news for me, please call me at 499-2164.

Final Plans Made For Miss Pageant

The Xi Kappa Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi has finalized plans for the Little Miss Canyon Pageant to be held Oct. 27 in the Canyon High School Auditorium starting at 7:30 p.m.

Three age categories will be 3-5 Little Miss Canyon, 6-9 Little Miss Canyon, and 10-12 Junior Miss Canyon.

Deadline for entries is Oct. 16, and all entries must be mailed to Mrs. Tommy Hunter, Rt. 2, Box 48H, Canyon.

Entry blanks for the pageant are available at Gene Howe, Rex Reeves and Canyon Junior High Schools and at some local merchants. Also, from Mrs. Tommy Hunter or Mrs. Johnny Robinson.

Only residents of Canyon or those attending Canyon public schools will be eligible. Entrants will be judged on appearance and poise and will be required to wear a party dress for the pageant. There will be a winner and runner-up in each of the three categories.

For further information about the contest and entry fees, call Mrs. Tommy Hunter at 655-3095 or Mrs. Johnny Robinson at 655-3987.

Tickets for the pageant will be sold at the door Oct. 27.

Cowboys' Record Dips With Loss

The Canyon Cowboys of the Kids, Inc., Pioneer 6th Grade League recorded their first loss of the season last Sunday by bowing to Belmar 16-0.

The Cowboys now have three wins. They meet Wolfkin at Southlawn North at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 23 in their next outing.

Anthropologist To Speak

Prof. Jack T. Hughes, West Texas State University anthropologist, will address the annual meeting of the Oklahoma Anthropological Society at Lawton Saturday night.

Hughes' talk will concern a prehistoric complex of villages established by the Plains Indians along the Canadian River breaks in the Texas Panhandle.

These particular Indians were communal dwellers and corn raisers and lived in that region in the period of 1200 - 1450. Their disappearance from the area is still the subject of mystery to anthropologists.

Hughes, whose wife is also an anthropologist, recently had a book about the Caddoan Indians of East Texas accepted for inclusion in an American Indian Ethnohistory series.

Educators Touring Amarillo Health Facilities

Several teachers and administrators in the Canyon Public Schools are participating in a tour of health facilities in Amarillo today.

The tour is presented under auspices of the Women's Division of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

Sites to be toured include those that could be of particular interest to school personnel in the area, said Doris Rogers, spokesman for the Amarillo organization.

Facilities to be visited include the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center, the Killgore Children's Psychiatric Center, the State Center for Human Development and the Children's Rehabilitation Center.

Participating in the all-day tour are principals John Sommer of Canyon High School, Dave Corley of Canyon Junior High School, Bob Parks of Rex Reeves Elementary and Luther Lawless of Gene Howe Elementary.

Also, Kenneth Hart, Carroll Killingsworth, B. B. Kendrick, Vondine McGregor, Eleanor Decard, Hazel Strickland and Ruth Holladay.

Rex Reeves Choral Group Invited To Festival

Yet another tribute was paid the Canyon public school music program recently when a choral group at Rex Reeves Elementary School was invited to perform at the Fine Arts Festival scheduled for November on the University of Texas campus.

Unfortunately, the coveted invitation had to be turned down, said Mrs. Ruth Wilson, music teacher for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

"We felt it was just too big of an undertaking for elementary-age youngsters," Mrs. Wilson said. The Fine Arts Festival, being presented under auspices of the Texas Music Educators' Association, will focus around fine arts in education, a spokesman said.

The Rex Reeves ensemble came to the attention of festival coordinators through J.W. King, director of the music program in the Canyon schools and TMEA president.

The selection of the Rex Reeves choral group for performance at the Festival came after a flurry of invitations to other Canyon public school music groups were received and accepted.

The most outstanding accolade came to the Canyon High School Eagle Band, which was invited to perform before the National Music Educators Con-

News Brief

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker, Whittier, Calif., former Canyon residents, spent the day Monday visiting old friends.

The Walkers were on a vacation that will take them to Fort Worth and then to Houston.

Mrs. Walker, formerly Gwendolyn Black, is a graduate of Canyon High School and West Texas State University.

Some of the people they visited were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Britain, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis, and Mrs. A. B. Duncan, Johnny and Courtney.

ference scheduled this spring. The West Texas State University Choral also received an invitation to perform at the prestigious national meet, to be held in March in Anaheim, Calif.

The Canyon High School Choral under the direction of Tom Jennings was also honored this year with an invitation to perform at the Texas Music Educators' Conference scheduled Feb. 7-9 in Houston.

Earlier in the summer, the CHS Choir also had to turn down an attractive offer when it relinquished its candidacy as one of 20 high school ensembles under consideration for a European tour. The Continental tour was out of the question, according to Jennings, because of the cost involved in the trip.

Although she regrets not being able to take her youngsters to Austin, Mrs. Wilson says she's delighted that her group was considered outstanding enough to merit an invitation for performance.

Members of her sixth grade choir will be performing, however, at a TSTA district meet slated Nov. 9 in Amarillo.

The program for the meet, entitled "Music From the Pacific," will feature "Bali Hai," show tune from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "South Pacific," and a selection of native tunes from the Pacific isles, including "Samoan Slap Dance," "Maori," and an Hawaiian Christmas Carol.

In March, a group of students from Mrs. Wilson's fourth grade choir will be featured in a demonstration performance for the Canyon Fine Arts Club. Recently, the club presented the Rex Reeves music department with a Karl Orff xylophone, which will be utilized in the demonstration, Mrs. Wilson said.

Eagles To Meet Palo Duro

Plagued by an increasing casualty list, Canyon Eagle Coach Ron Mills looks forward to his team's final AAAA football game when CHS meets the Palo Duro Dons on Dick Bivins Stadium turf at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Palo Duro is the final AAAA opponent on this fall's Eagle schedule, a schedule which may make the Eagles glad to finally compete against AAA schools in their own district.

District play begins next weekend with the Eagles against Levelland in a Levelland game.

Nursing a record of three losses, a tie and a win, the Eagles are going Friday night against a team which has also had problems with injuries this season.

War. . .

Dr. Thoman said King Hussein of Jordan has taken a diplomatic role in seeking peaceful means of obtaining the return of the occupied Jordanian territory rather than a stance similar to that taken by the Egyptians, who demand its return.

The fact that Jordan has apparently not entered the conflict will also be significant militarily, Dr. Thoman believes, because "the Jordanians have some of the best fighting people in the Middle East."

In eyeing the U.S. role and the Russian role in the current crisis, Dr. Thoman said he believes neither country will take an active participatory role.

"The thrust of our diplomacy has been to prevent outside forces from being sucked into it," he said. "Our main interest is to keep Russia out. We're not going to do anything. Our position has

Mills is currently looking at a starting lineup which bears only token resemblance to the lineup he started the year with.

Three juniors will be in the backfield on the offense when the Eagles line up Friday night. Gary Bednorz, key running back for the Eagles, won't see action at all Friday night.

But, formerly injured Garre LaGrone will be in shape and the backfield will be filled by LaGrone, Jimmy Ward and Adrian Foil.

In the line, Dennis Collier will be slowed by a neck injury.

The defensive linebacker will also be a key position for Mills. Pampa's Harvesters took advantage of inexperience in the left lineback position last Friday to gain yardage against the Eagles. Injuries have depleted the bench in that position for the Eagles.

This week the Eagles have again been working on minimizing penalties, costly errors which totalled a large yardage margin for the Eagles against Pampa.

They are also working against the 1 formation, used by Palo Duro, a team with at least one fleet back and a good passer.

Mills said Palo Duro began the season with a bang, downing Dumas with a good margin, but injuries have also taken their toll on the Dons.

At this point in the season, the Dons have been beaten by Hereford, which also beat the Eagles by a narrow margin.

Mills believes the Eagles can match the Dons in team size, but he says the Dons have quickness as well.

Indian Guides

Pow-Wow Saturday

A Pow-Wow and overnight camp-out for all YMCA Indian Guides and their fathers will be held Saturday at Camp Christmas Tree.

Some 600 members are expected to register between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. for the get together.

From 2-4 p.m. there will be participation in games for the fathers and sons, between 4-5 p.m. tribes will put together displays and at 5 p.m., there will be an induction ceremony for the new tribe members.

Some 27 new tribes have been organized with 7-10 father and son pairs as an average in each group.

Mothers are invited to come for the games, displays and induction ceremonies.

Canyon Mayor Bryan told the officials he believes the Canyon board should be consulted about their feelings before any citizens committee is formed.

He pointed out that the school board members are elected officials and if they do not themselves accurately represent the people the people have an alternative. He said he would favor giving the Canyon board a say-so in the process.

His opinion was also voiced by Raillard and Pond.

Mayor Vahue said it might be possible that an outside consulting firm could be hired to study the issue.

But, they agreed the Canyon board should be informed of the possibilities and given the chance to speak on the subject.

The board meets at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the high school.

In other developments in the school annexation situation, tax office officials have reported that a portion of the land in question has been purchased by a Lubbock development company.

And, in action earlier this week the Amarillo Planning and Zoning Commission has recommended city commission approval of annexation of a portion of the land.

House and the Senate.

Matthis said there is no precedent to determine how the House and Senate shall vote on the nomination — specifically on whether they shall hold hearings on the nominee.

Matthis said the resignation for the time being puts Carl Albert, speaker of the House, under the President in line of succession should something happen to the President.

Another WTSU professor shed light on the precedents in American history for the stepping down of an incumbent vice president.

The only known historical precedent for Agnew's move, according to Dr. Pete Petersen of the WTSU history faculty, would be the resignation of lame-duck Vice President John C. Calhoun, who relinquished the post in Dec., 1832, three months before Vice President-Elect Martin Van Buren was to assume the office in the second Andrew Jackson administration.

Calhoun resigned to seek appointment to the Senate seat vacated by Robert Hayne who left his seat to become governor of South Carolina.

4 From Canyon In WT Program For Secretaries

Four Canyon students are enrolled in the two-year secretarial program at West Texas State University.

They are Karen L. Malzahn, Marilyn B. Swartzell, Emily Jan Landrum, and Ann Dooley.

Miss Malzahn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ray Malzahn of 1700 Hillcrest, is a graduate of Canyon High School.

Mrs. Swartzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Read of 2506 13th Ave., is also a CHS graduate and is a member of Chi Omega.

Mrs. Landrum is also a graduate of CHS.

Miss Dooley, daughter of Mrs. Claire Dooley, is a graduate of CHS.

CHS Teacher, Students To Attend VOE Meet

A delegation from Canyon High School will be attending the Vocational Office Education Fall Workshop For Teachers and Office Education Association Officers, slated Saturday on the campus of Abilene Christian College.

Attending the VOE teachers meet will be Georgia Lee, teacher coordinator of VOE and the co-junctive OEA club.

OEA officers from CHS who will be attending a day-long leadership conference during the workshop are Nancy Reynolds, club president, and Rhonda Bond, vice-president.

VOE students and their instructors from throughout the Panhandle and West Texas region are expected to attend the workshop.

Citing the experience of other cities, he said "there seems to be a considerable tax saving."

Fletcher suggested Sheriff Cliff Longest, an elected county official, be made head of the joint department with Chief of Police Al Stewart as chief deputy.

Included in his proposal was a provision that the county purchase all law enforcement equipment from the city to operate the joint department.

"It's a good point to discuss with them," Commissioner Bill Butler averred.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey was a little more cautious.

"It might have some possibility in the future," he said. "We'd have to look at the financial portion of it. We couldn't accept the responsibility without some additional revenue. . . I'm sure they'd like to turn it over but we'd need some extra financing."

Lindsey and Commissioner John Fulgenzi were instructed to lay out the proposal to city commissioners during a joint negotiating session held later that afternoon to consider a workable contract for joint services.

In other business Monday, commissioners approved an $11,000 annual contract with the City of Amarillo for supplying certain computerized tax information for the county tax office.

The contract calls for the city to provide valuations and identification numbers on new properties located in the Randall County portion of the city.

Commissioners also instructed Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, to negotiate with the City of Amarillo for a contract on information the county supplies that city for automobile taxation.

Currently, commissioners pointed out, the county is providing without charge certain detailed information on that city's tax roll.

Poff. . .

which would have, in its original form, established a large animal diagnostic laboratory on the WTSU campus, outlined the events which led to the establishment of that lab in the Amarillo Medical Center.

He said there is direct link to Texas A&M's desire to have the lab placed in Amarillo and its visions of expansion.

He said A&M is working on the theory that within the next decade animal medicine will be established in the state and since Amarillo is the only major metropolitan area without a four-year college, and without the logical location for that facility, the logical choice for that location would be Amarillo.

Poff revealed that the students the politics involved in first A&M's apparent desire to have the lab located at WTSU and then their demand that it be placed in another location.

Poff said he worked initially in the session with officials from Texas A&M, who told him they wanted the lab to be located on the WTSU campus.

Working under that assumption, Poff introduced and after much trouble succeeded in passing the bill to establish the lab in Canyon.

But, he said, the state senator from Bryan had forced changes in the Senate companion bill which in its final form said the lab would be located in either Potter or Randall counties.

"The Aggies had told me one thing and had been doing another," Poff charged.

Poff said when he learned he had been hoodwinked by A&M, he determined to fight passage of the bill.

But, the bill passed and the A&M regents have since decided to locate the $900,000 facility in Amarillo.

"It was obvious I'd been had," he said. "The people told me black was black and it turned out white."

Poff said A&M is also interested in giving Texas Tech a run for its money in expansion in the Amarillo market.

"There's no question the Aggies would like to have an A&M at Amarillo," he said. "They will obviously try to expand."

In other comments to questions posed by students, Poff said money allocated for lobbying in the Texas legislature would be the best money WTSU could spend to secure its future.

Honor Choir, Orchestra Day Scheduled Saturday At WT

Top high school orchestra and choir ensembles will be on the West Texas State University campus Saturday for an all-day schedule of clinic and performance sessions sponsored by the WTSU music department.

Guest clinicians for the event are Dr. Eph Ehly of the University of Missouri at Kansas City, who will direct the choral group; and Dr. Ralph Matesky, widely-known orchestra director from Utah State University.

Dr. Matesky is the father of Michael Matesky, assistant professor of music at WTSU and director of the University Symphony Orchestra.

Choirs participating in the event include ensembles from Springlake-Earth, San Angelo, Palo Duro and Pampa high schools.

Participating orchestras include those from Caprock, Tascosa and Amarillo High Schools.

The ensembles will be spending the morning in clinic sessions beginning at 10 a.m. in the Fine Arts Building on campus.

A combined rehearsal of all choral groups is slated at 2:15 p.m.

A special performance by the WTSU Choral will begin at 3 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium. Programmed works include Paul Fetter's "Sing Unto God," Benjamin Britten's "Rejoice in the Lamb," A. Desenclos' "Nos Autem" and "Salve Regina," and Paul Sjoland's farcical pieces.

"One Perfect Rose" and "When You're Away."

The day-long event culminates with a concert featuring all of the choir and orchestra ensembles in performance of two selections each, and a combined performance of Vaughn Williams' opus, "Dona Nobis Pacem." The concert is scheduled at 6:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Coordinators for the event are Dr. Hugh Sanders, director of choral activities at WTSU, and Michael Matesky.

Les Amies Club

Installs Officers

The Les Amies Study Club recently had installation of new officers in the First National Bank Building.

Those installed were Becky Blewett, president; Mary Lisa McBride, vice president; Gerri Carruth, treasurer; Christi Prichard, secretary; Pat Freidell, reporter; and Jo Beth Price, parliamentarian.

Plans for the Halloween Carnival booth were set up and Susie Wright was chosen as the candidate for Les Amies for the Halloween queen contest.

Others indicted include Gilbert Cuellar, Edward Hernandez and Luis Martinez, all charged with burglary of a motor vehicle; Thomas Kincaid, charged with driving while intoxicated second offense; Jerry Nolan Atkinson, charged with driving while intoxicated second offense; James Randolph Kisinger, charged with horse theft.

WT Director Seeking Ex-Chorale Members

West Texas State University Choral exes will have the opportunity to test their vocal chords at a Homecoming Luncheon slated at noon, Oct. 20 in the Fine Arts Building.

Dr. Hugh Sanders, director of choral activities at WTSU, has asked all former members of the WTSU ensemble interested in attending the event to contact the music department this week.

A short "rehearsal" session for ex-Chorale members is slated at 11:30 a.m. in the Choir Room. Dr. Sanders said that the assembled group will possibly perform at the noon luncheon.

Luncheon tickets are priced at $2 per person. Reservations may be obtained through the music department office.

Mescalero Park News

Porcupine Visits Park Sun.

By TOOTIE BYBEE

GUESS FOR THE most part life has been rather quiet around the Park this last week. Everyone, I suppose is either waiting for the first freeze of winter or the first six week report card, which to some may be like a cold blast of bad weather. I've seen so many of you out getting ready for winter. The garden's all just about gone and thank heavens a few of us are getting a little rest from canning.

I always look for the first freeze around Halloween so all the children can either freeze or run a "Trick or Treat."

A LITTLE EXCITEMENT was stirred up Sunday afternoon by a very different but very interesting visitor to the Whitehead's yard. A very large and very upset porcupine wandered into their yard and gave everyone a first hand nature lesson. Roger, with the help of the Mitchell bunch, managed to get him into a metal garbage can and then he and Troy managed to get him into a large wooden box with a metal grate on top. All the neighbors came by with the kiddies to see the needle-backed little critter. He was really a very large one and seemed to be as interested in us as we were in him. Although for the most part he kept his back to us, anyway, after everyone got a chance to see him, the Whiteheads took him down around Camp Don Harrington and turned him loose so he would be happy and the dogs and kids would be a little safer around here.

GUESS SINCE THIS is a column with more information on critters than people, I must tell you about my little friend Scamper. He showed up last week over at the Whiteheads on their barn then moved on over here. He is a little grey squirrel and is so sweet. It is the first one I have seen in the park due to be in the tree area we happen to be in.

HE HAS CLEANED out the bird feeders of sunflower seeds two times and Trina Cooper and Sue Brooks both have brought him lots of pecans. He climbs the telephone pole in our backyard and eats away his watches all of us with twinkling eyes. We are almost sure he is living under our wood pile. So, you might watch for him. Goodness, I hope he can stay the winter and the cats, dogs and etc., don't get him.

EXCEPT TO SAY I still have four little kittens that need homes, that's enough about critters!

DARLENE FINKE CALLED with a little information about the bands in the schools. Want to congratulate the $5,000 prize winners, who sold the over-all high dollars and cents in Spaghetti Supper tickets. From Gene Howe - Eddie

Frosh Buffs Take 3rd Win

Coach Ronnie Mankin's West Texas State University freshman football team recorded its third consecutive victory of the season without a defeat Saturday night and now take a week off before closing the season on the road.

The Baby Buffaloes play Monterey Tech of Mexico, a senior college, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 20, in Del Rio to close their season.

West Texas halted junior college power, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, 14-8, here Saturday night to run its winning string to three for the season. The Baby Buffs had earlier defeated Cisco Junior College, 16-0, and the University of Texas at El Paso junior varsity, 32-12, in road contests.

Little Bryan Carr, who worked at quarterback in the opening season victory over Cisco, but has played tailback in the other two games, leads the Baby Buffs in rushing with 341 yards on 71 carries, a 4.8-yard average.

Carr replaced injured tailback Donald Jackson of Houston after Sauer, Rex Reeves - there was a tie - Ronnie Roberts and Brian Wylie. High School - Kathy Cantrell, Symphonies John Guidry, Concert - Monte Harrison, Cadet - David Hall. Looks like the boys had a little better sale record than the girls! The Band Parents and kiddoes want to thank all the people who helped, baked cakes and pies, bought tickets and just gave them the great support to make this the best Spaghetti Supper ever.

THEY ARE NOT finished yet! The band will be selling Christmas foil wrapping paper and ribbon. Won't have the price until next week, but you might remember to wait and buy your Christmas wrap from one of the band members. Also, they have a bunch of the recipe books made up by the band parents a year or so ago. They were selling for $3.65 and now you can have one for $2.00. These are the books where each one of the Band Parents put in 10 of their favorite recipes. So if you are interested just give Darlene a call at 352-2971. They need eleven thousand dollars to make the trip to Anaheim, Calif. to play for the Music Educators National Conference. They are one of the only two high schools in Texas to be invited.

THE THURSDAY LADIES' Club met at Betty Malson's house for that good ole weekly meeting and eating thing. We will meet at Deann Cooper's this week. Wonder if we all could find our "Gracious Woman" book and get started on that about now, or does anyone really feel that gracious with all that extra summer weight we've put on. Ha.

THE DISCOVERY CLUB reported they are busy making their ceremonial gowns for the coming year and are making them themselves which makes me quite happy to know that the younger generation takes to sewing so readily.

THE ADVENTURE GROUP is busy on a Halloween project that we hope the whole neighborhood will help us by supporting. We will tell you about it in a couple of weeks. Now, if you didn't call me this week you should have. I know there are lots of fun things going on that I don't know about, so please call me. Please, please, please, thank you.

News Brief

A clinic for string teachers will be conducted by the West Texas State University music department at the new Amarillo High School today.

Ralph Matesky, orchestra director at Utah State University, will serve as clinician. He is a past national president of the American String Teachers' Association and a graduate of The Juilliard School in New York.

Two sessions of the clinic will be conducted at 4:50 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., said Dr. George Amberson, department chairman. There will be no charge, he added.

Tennis Circuit Includes City

A Panhandle tennis circuit to include a stop in Canyon was approved last weekend by representatives of six area towns who met on the West Texas State University campus.

The circuit will include Amarillo, Borger, Plainview, Pampa, Lubbock and Canyon.

Canyon representatives at the meeting were WTSU tennis coach David Kent and Mrs. Pauline Hefley. Play on the circuit will open with the Amarillo Open in June and end in mid-August in Canyon.

Friendship Sewing Club Has Meeting

The Friendship Sewing Club met Thursday in the home of Mrs. Herrick Simon who opened the club meeting in the absence of the president.

Roll call was answered by each member relating "the time I was most scared," and the club song "Smile" was sung.

After a brief business meeting, a program on poetry and thoughts about autumn was given.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Leonard Winters, L. E. Hermesmyer, Frank Simon, Clarence Winters, and Herrick Simon.

The next meeting will be Oct. 18 in the home of Mrs. C. T. Burch, 1612 E. 26th St., Amarillo. Mrs. Bill Thompson, Umbarger, was special guest for the meeting.

Cookies will be brought to the next meeting for the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone 655-7121, or stop by the News office on the south side of the square.

Cool-Weather Greetings:

HE CAME — HE played — he conquered our hearts and our imaginations. No problem with the ol', usually wavering, attention span when Van Cliburn is center stage! Thunderous applause netted symphony-goers three, count them — three, marvelous encores by the popular artist.

An evening of musical memories to tuck away for rainy day reference.

MEMBERS OF THE Amarillo Art League were treated to a tour of the commercial art and advertising program offered by the Texas State Technical Institute last week. Members met briefly in the home of Effie Carpenter before leaving on the field trip to TSTI. Mr. Bob Bayle conducted the group through the commercial art division, and gave a complete and concise report of the specialized training offered. Very interesting. Babe Miller serves as president of the League this year. Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Howard Brosier were co-hostesses for the Oct. 2 meeting.

SHERRI MCGREGOR, DAUGHTER of Herb and Vondan McGregor, brought a fourth place trophy home last weekend following the world's finals meet between the United Association and the National Association out of Fort Worth. The meet was held in Quanaah, with several riding clubs represented. Sherri is a member of the Palo Duro Rangers and competed with nine other riders in the Keyhole competition. In this competition, the shape of a keyhole is marked off in the arena, and the rider must guide his/her mount around the designated area. Speed, of course, is the name of the game, and Sherri and her 24-year old Red marked up 6.59 seconds. If the horse steps on any line at any time, it's instant disqualification. Congratulations to this young lady, who also serves as Queen of the Palo Duro Rangers!

THE AMARILLO PUBLIC Library is offering a fall series of Thursday talks on the Panhandle of Texas. Oct. 18 will find Mr. Dick Carter of Amarillo, Texas Panhandle Archaeological Society, presenting a talk on "Digging up the Past." Slides showing sites and discoveries at Alibates, in the Palo Duro and along the Canadian River and various artifacts will be part of one of the most interesting presentations you have ever heard. 7:30 p.m. on the third floor of the main library.

HOME ROOM REPRESENTATIVES, or home room mothers, or those party ladies — whatever you want to call them — have been named at Gene Howe. Linda Reiser is room mother for the morning kindergarten class, and Elsie Tidwell has agreed to like duties for the afternoon kindergarten class.

IN THE FIRST grades Gayle Betty serves in Mrs. Gerald's class; Silva Boyer in Mrs. Niemeyer's class; and Marion Marrs in Miss Layman's room. Mrs. Stevens has selected Jessie Coronado for her second grade room. And, Sandra Wait has been chosen for Mrs. Trex's class. Room mom for Mrs. Hicks is Ellen Hickerson. Third grade room mothers are Bernice Powers in Mrs. Langen's class; Melba Thompson in Mrs. Mills' class; and, Juanita Evans in Mrs. Woodward's room.

FOURTH GRADE ROOM representatives are Carol Biddy for Mrs. McGill and Karolyne Farmer for Mrs. Ramaekers. Phyllis Hicks is mom for Mrs. Taylor's fifth graders; Lou Anne Davis for Mrs. Smith; and, Glenna Schmidt for Mrs. Capps. Sixth grade room reps include Sharon Howard in Mrs. Shoemaker's class; Betty Thomas for Mrs. Parsons' room; and, Billie Glenn for Mrs. Green's class.

ALL THESE LADIES will be assisting and working with the teachers in whatever way so requested. They also help with the permitted party-giving at the school. "Party letters" have already been sent home — giving everyone the golden opportunity to sign up for the party and duty of their choice. These room reps are valuable assets to our school community — thank you to each one of them for serving in this manner.

WINNERS OF THE Bicycle Safety Poster Contest are as follows: In the second grade: first place to Kevin Wait; second place to Tammy O'Dell; and third place to Darla Campbell. In the third grade: first place to Shelley Camouse; second place to Duane Hollis; and third place to Tonya Thompson. Fourth grade winners are: first place to Devon Marshall; second place to Teresa Polvadore; and third place to Denise Tension.

FIFTH GRADE WINNERS find Glen Lewis with a first place ribbon; Kaki Mulhern with a second place ribbon; and Bill Davis with a third place ribbon. All these award-winning posters were on display during the Back-to-School Night open house at Gene Howe Monday evening. Congrats to these young artists, each of whom made an important point regarding bicycle safety with their entries.

FOOTBALL AND SOCCER news: Some Gene Howe teams played this last week and some didn't. Bob and Dennis Trook's fifth and sixth grade team reports a 6-6 score with Margaret Wills, and Monte Johnson scoring for the tie. This team tied 0-0 with Wesley Community Center, and gained a forfeit last Sunday from Belmar. Next scheduled game will come with Alice Landergin on the 16th.

OUR FIRST GRADE soccer team scored against Whittier, with Don Meier making the goal. This team has Don Wilcox serving as assistant coach. These young men are having a great deal of fun with this "new" game — we are cheering for you, fellows!

A VERY HAPPY to Gemma Johnson, who birthdayed on the 7th. Gemma is the newly-nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson.

THAT YUMMY SPAGHETTI supper put on by the Canyon Band Parents was a huge success again this year, serving even more eager eaters than during previous years. One parent was heard to remark that, "It rained people." Heart-felt thank yous to those who participated in this event (and to those hard-working band parents!).

RECEIVING PRIZE MONEY for selling the most tickets (counting cash sales only) went to Eddie Sauer from Gene Howe; to Brian Wylie and Ronnie Roberts (a tie) from Rex Reeves; and to Cathy Cantrell from the high school. The junior high winners are: Symphonie band — John Gudyry; Concert Band — Monte Harrison; and Cadet Band — David Hall.

THIS ACTIVE BAND parent association will again sponsor the haunted house in Canyon. This year, the eerie goings on will be happening at 801 23rd Street, on the corner of 8th Ave. and 23rd St., on the Lubbock highway. Won't be hard to find — just follow the ghostly sounds to their source. The house will open on the 26th, stay open for the 27th, close on Sunday, and be open again on the 29th, the 30th and the 31st. Mrs. Gary Garner and Mrs. Roy Cates are serving as co-chairwomen for this blood-chilling project.

THIS IS A BIGGIE year for the band students, and they need some long green with which to operate. A new fund-raising project finds the band parents with gobs of beautiful gift wrap paper to sell. Just in time for Christmas wrappings, but not necessarily restricted to the holiday theme. The white paper is 20 feet long; the beautifully colored metallic paper measures fifteen feet. A varied assortment of colors is available. (The gold and silver are particularly lovely, with the blue, green, red, pink, and a couple of prints adding happy colors to our gift giving.) The paper is marked to sell for $2, but the band parents will let you have some for $1.50 a roll.

COLOR-COORDINATED RIBBON is on order and will be available soon. The ribbon is 1/2 of an inch wide, with the solid rolls measuring 90 feet long, and the decolette (fancy) is 80 feet long. The ribbon costs $1 a roll. Also available — bow pins at 50 cents for a package of 24, and bow makers for $1.25. (Only thing not available from the band parents is the actual package wrapping, but we will keep working on this.)

OK FOLKS, we will all be gift-giving soon. We will all be needing something with which to cover the goodies — so — get with the program — support our bands. (Added bonus: in town!) Sherrie Cates on Goodnight Trail, 355-2080; Betty Johnson on McCormick Road, 622-0041; Pat Seth on Euclid Street, 355-6929; and Willeta Johnson at 488-3074 call in the evenings for Willeta; will all serve as distribution points for the gift wrapping paper. It's certainly not too early to get this part of our shopping done — get your paper and ribbon supply from our bands.

ANOTHER GOOD DEAL — the band parents are closing out the remaining Vienna cookbooks at $2 each. (Get one for your mother-in-law and wrap it in the band paper.) Call one of the above listed ladies regarding the cookbooks, too.

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall.

This Is Not A Fairy Tale!

KNOW THE ENEMY! JOIN THE FIGHT!
RID THE COMMUNITY OF NARCOTICS!

In the community interest, this message is sponsored by . . .

IT'S THE TRUTH...
IT'S A TRAGEDY!

So now little men you've grown tired of grass,
L.S.D., goof balls, cocaine, and hash,
and someone pretending to be a true friend
said, I'll introduce you to "Miss Heroin."

Well honey, before you start fooling with me, just let me inform you of how it will be.

For I will seduce you and make you my slave.
I've sent men much stronger than you to their graves.

You think you could never become a disgrace and end up addicted to poppy seed waste.

So you'll start inhaling me one afternoon;
you'll take me into your arms very soon.

Once I have entered deep down in your veins,
the craving will nearly drive you insane.

You'll need lots of money (as you have been told)
for darling, I'm much more expensive than gold!

You will swindle your mother, and for just a buck
you'll turn into something vile and corrupt.

You will mug and you will steal for my narcotic charms,
and feel contentment when I'm in your arms.

The day you realize the monster you've grown,
you'll solemnly promise to leave me alone.

If you think you've got the mystical knack,
then sweetie, just try getting me off your back.

The vomit, the cramps, your guts tied in knots,
the yangling nerves screaming for just one more shot,

The hot chills and cold sweat, the withdrawal pains,
can only be saved by my little white grains.

There is no other way and there is no need to look.
For deep down inside you will know you are hooked.

You will desperately run to the pusher and then you will welcome me back to your arms once again.

When you return (just as I foretold) I know that you will give me your body and soul.

You will give up your morals, conscience and your heart,
You will be mine until Death Do Us Part!!!!

followed by a "I remember when..."
Reminiscing will go back as far as the 1920's. Some very good special music has also been planned. So make your plans now to attend the annual Wayside Homecoming on Oct. 21.

JIMMY BRAZILE OF
Gruver and formerly of Amarillo won the calf roping saddle on Saturday afternoon at the Fourth Annual Wesley-Sims
Memorial Roping. Jimmy Brazile and Ronny Seawalt tied for first place in the average with a total time of 34.1 seconds on three calves. They each roped four calves to break the tie for the saddle. Ronny Seawalt is from Chico, Tex. Joe Hall of Goldsmith and Tooter Waites of Stephenville tied for third and fourth in the average with a total time of 37.5 seconds on three head, only 3.4 seconds behind first place. Jimmy Keimer of Stinnett won fifth with 37.8 and Charlie Noble of Yale, Okla. won sixth with 39. seconds flat.

J. J. RYDBERT of Lamar, Colo. tied the fastest calf of the day in ten seconds flat. Jimmy Brazile tied two calves in 10.1
seconds and won the second go-round with that time. It was only good for second in the third go.
Tooter Waites won first in the first go with 10.6 seconds.

DICK ZACHRY, A former Happy resident, won a part of the third go with a time of 11.1. Calf roping was at its best on Saturday.

SUNDAY, THE ARENA
grounds were filled with people.
Many came for the noon barbecue served by the Rodeo Association. Beef for the barbecue was donated by Happy Feed Lot, Parker Cattle Company and Swisher County Cattle Company. Eugene Jackson, Norman Freeman and Lloyd Rahlfs were chairmen of the barbecue. Nell Sims, Dot Foster, Linda
McDonald, Billie Pearson, Betty
Stockett, Lavenna Jackson, Gue
Faye Via, Coleen Schaeffer, Lavonne Starkey, Helen Bryan,
Mary Ann Magness, Jo Hand,
Joy Freeman, Susan Rahlfs, and Betty Tipps were among those who helped to serve the meal.

SHOAT WEBSTER OF
Linaph, Okla., won the steer roping saddle with a time of 57.6 seconds on three steers. Tuffy Thompson, the current World Champion Steer Roper and a home town cowboy won second in the average with 60.18 seconds, only 3.2 seconds behind first place. Marvin Cantrell of Nara Vasa, N.M. won third with 62.9; Randy Burcett of Pryor, Okla., fourth, with 64.8; Tim Prather of Snyder, fifth with 72.1 seconds; and James Allen of Santa Anna, sixth with 87.2 seconds. Shoat Webster was a former World Champion Steer Roper in 1949, '50, '54 and '55.
James Allen is a former winner of the Happy Roping and has stood in the top fifteen ropers of the nation.

BILLY FRANK GOOD of Elida, N.M., tied the fastest steer of the day in 13.5 seconds. Troy Fort of Lovington, N.M. was second with a time of 13.7.

TUFFY THOMPSON WON
the third go-round with a time of 13.9 seconds and that was the third fastest time of the day.
Jimmy Moore won the first go-round with a time of 16.3 seconds.
Billy Frank Good won the second.

BOB MARRS OF Stockman Saddle Shop in Amarillo built the saddles that were given away to the winners of each day's event.

KENNETH HODGE OF
Sayre, Okla., won the drawing for the free tickets to the National Rodeo Finals in Oklahoma City in December. Gene Shipman was the rodeo association member who sold the most tickets and received the free tickets to the RCA Finals as his prize.

"CHIPS", THE NINE
month old black and white border collie, was auctioned off on Sunday afternoon. He went to Randy Johnson.

A PART OF the proceeds each year go for Memorial Scholarships. Bowie Wesley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wesley, was killed in a highway accident near Hardin, Mont. in July 31, 1970. Bowie was a promising young roper on the RCA circuit and had won the RCA "Rookie of the Year" award in 1968.

WENDELL SIMS WAS a charter member of the Happy Rodeo Association and was serving as a director at the time of his death, July 3, 1971. Wendell was one of those who worked almost 24 hour days to finish the rodeo arena that first year in time for the Happy Days Celebration. He not only donated his time, but equipment that was used to help build. When the time came to prepare the arena for any event, Wendell was one who would be there to plow or whatever needed to be done. We still miss him.

HOMECOMING BEGAN
WITH a pep rally and bonfire on Thursday evening of last week.

VALERIE TIPS AND Mike Todd, sophomores, were crowned Flame Queen and King
at the Homecoming Bonfire.

JANA WALLACE IS
Homecoming Queen. Debbie McCarley and Marilyn Venhaus are her attendants. Greg Looney, president of the student council crowned Jana at the pep rally on Friday afternoon in the school auditorium.

ANDY HAND, GREG
Looney, Bobby Moudy, and Tommy Tipps were the captains for the Homecoming game.

CONNIE HAND AND Cathy Parker presented prizes of cap pistols and ammunition to these at the pep rally (they were chosen for Homecoming week):
Best western dress, Sherri
Starkey and Freddy Briscoe; Best black and gold dress, Bonnie Briscoe and Randy Perez;
Most spirited, Connie Hand and Andy Hand; and best dresses,
Miss Coats and Gordon
Hawthorne.

THE BI-DISTRICT
BASKETBALL Champs of 1963 who were present for the program were David Penn, Jerry Don Stevens, Jimmy Blackburn,
Rickey Harman, Larry Payne,
Leonard Harvey, and George Trey. I later saw Ronnie Middleton and Richard Kennedy who were also on that team.

ABOUT 250 WERE present for the barbecue dinner that evening in the school cafeteria.

THE DAY WAS rainy and cool and looked as if it might last forever, but the moisture lightened for the football game.
The chill was still in the air.
Happy beat the Nazareth Swifts
32 to 6. It was a good game.

MY MUM HAD the number
"23" on it, which is J.T.'s number. He bought it for me.
Everyone kept teasing me about that being the year I graduated.

THE 1953 CLASS reunion on Saturday at the Jaycee Hall was attended by eleven class members and thirty six were present. Peggy Dustman Smith and her three girls, Sharon,
Karen and Vicki of Amarillo;
Carl and Helen Bryan and their Rowdy, Gerald and Faye Ann McCasland and their Kevin of San Antonio; Travis and Annette Taylor and their Tam-bra, Trent and Trina of Amarillo; Elvin and June McDowell and their Kurtis, Wendy and Rik of Boulder, Colo.; Johnny and Joan Tracy of Amarillo; Joe Henry of Hereford; Robert Ferguson of Sunray (well Robert has a Gruver address and is County Commissioner of Sherman County —
I call that confused); Buddy and Lawana Selvidge and their Tisha and Rhenea and Tom and I and our Angelique and Sheri.
J.T. was there just to report his whereabouts. Our class lost both our class sponsor, Bennie Purnell, and a mascot, Mike McCarley, during the year.

MARK TACKITT WON the Zone Competition of Punt, Pass and Kick and will go to Oklahoma City this weekend to compete there. This will make Mark's second trip to Oklahoma City. Good Luck!

VINCENTRAY VENHAUS
won second in his age division and will be alternate to go to Oklahoma City should the first place winner of his division be unable to go.

RAYMOND JACKSON,
BROTHER of Eugene Jackson, was a visitor in Happy over the weekend.

LEONA AND MERLE
McFarland traveled to Roswell,
N.M., on Friday to attend a dinner honoring Leona's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. V. L.
Westerfield, on their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

BECAUSE OF V.L.'S health,
only family were able to attend.
A large family group were present. These included both sons, Roy Westerfield and his family of Las Vegas, Nev. and Noel Westerfield and his family of Oakland, Calif. Pat and Paul Westerfield and their families of Gruver, and Rebecca Westerfield of Gruver.

GERTIE AND LACY Boyd
of Wellington visited Pauline and Woodrow Wesley last weekend.

WILLIE BUTLER, RUTH
Mann, Dora Ratjen, Snooks and Juanita Robinson, Pauline Wesley, Gladys and Evelyn Shipman represented the Happy
Chapter of Eastern Star at the Grand Chapter in Dallas last week. Happy received several Grand appointments for the coming year.

THE WOMAN'S STUDY
Club observed their annual guest day Oct. 2 in the Fellowship rooms of the First Baptist Church.

THE THEME FOR the year's programs is "Changes and Choices." The quote for the afternoon program was "The pendulum is ever swinging,
whether it involves hair styles,
hemlines or heels."

MRS. REED MCDONALD, president, opened the meeting by welcoming the group and asking that each member introduce her guest. These were Nell Martin, Ollie Nichols, Livia Davis, Della
Venhaus, Catherine Miller,
Frances Hudson, Betty Miller
Phifer, Mildred Middleton, Alice
Middleton, Willa Jane
McManigal, Jan Irlbeck, Tola
Gurley, Lena Sims, Polly Waiters, Acie Del Boyd, Anna Mae McManigal, Betty Rahlfs, Joyce
Wheat, Flossie Johnston, Joan
McDonald, Camilla Greenfield,
Linda McDonald, Willie
McDonald, Merle White, Colleen
Schaeffer, Edith Johnson,

Skip Simons, Mildred Devin,
Thelma Ace, Willa Elliott, Royce
Vernon, Kate McManigal, Jessie Francy, Myrtle Barnes of Norman, Okla., Fay Johnston,
Sybil Prewitt, Novalene Toles,
Jerry Holland, and Joyce Rahlsback. Young guests were Jim McManigal and Laura Ann Tiley.

THE PROGRAM,
"FASHIONS from Nell's" was narrated by Mrs. Clayton Devin.
She wore a dress belonging to her great-grandmother. As the style show progressed, attention was placed on the changes from early day fashion to the "now" styles.
Hemlines went up and down.
Shoe toes and heels changed with the fashion style. Real fur became fake fur because of the ecology emphasis. Pant suits changed from the English riding pants to casual Levi slacks to the present dressy pant suits.
Popovers and caftans were for the casual wear around the home. Dinner gowns had changed from solids to polka dot materials. Flapper styles had

A salad supper with Mrs.
Theresa Lewis as hostess, was held Friday for members of the Alpha Theta Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Members and guests played
"Crazy Bridge" and other games.
Door prizes were won by Mrs.
Cindy Stevenson and Mrs. Mary Alice Hines.

Mrs. Bob Weldon, Mrs. Tommy McManigal traveled to Artesia, N.M., recently and spent the weekend with Dixie and Hobie McManigal and their Kim and Kay.

KEITH WINTER GAVE an interesting and informative talk at the General Meeting of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce last week. He made all of us feel confident of West Texas State University's future development and progress. The occasion gave many people a chance to get acquainted with a man who will play an important role in the future of the college and the community. I want to publicly give the appreciation of the Women's Division to Keith Winter for speaking to us.

THE SPAGHETTI SUPPER put on by the Canyon Band and their parents was a success last Friday and a good kick-off for the Homecoming festivities.

THE CANYON STUDY Club will be sponsoring their annual Halloween Carnival on Oct. 31st at the County Bull Barn again this year. Any group wishing to participate in the carnival should contact Susan Dolle or Gayle Gray.

THE KIWANIS CLUB of Canyon held their Installation Banquet last week at the Community Center, with the Division 33 Lt. Governor, Danny Lewis of Dimmitt acting as installing officer. Those installed were: David West, president; Dr. Vaughn Nelson, vice-president; Dale Hall, treasurer and George Ritter, secretary. Providing the entertainment for the banquet were the New Day Singers, directed by Dr. Hugh Sanders.

THE WIVES ETC. are having a styleshow brunch on Oct. 20th at 10 a.m. at the Community Center. Sakowitz of Amarillo will be providing the fashions for the style show, which will commence around 10:45. Tickets are $1 and may be purchased at Thompsons of Canyon or from Linda Ray, Lucy LaBrie, Linda Shelley, Mary Green, Ann Thomason, Bonita Oliver, Ann Bethel, and Claudine Lehman. The brunch will include coffee, fruit and sweet breads.

THE BUFFS REALLY came through by shutting out Lamar last week. I hope the Homecoming game against Utah State will be as good. But win or lose, we back the Buffs!

ALLEN AND SUZANNE Oltjen and their children Tracy and Bret went to Cloudcroft last weekend, for just a couple of relaxing days. They had car trouble just out of Ruidoso and were lucky enough to have a wonderful man from Arkansas help them to the next town. The man stayed with them until their car problems were solved. The Oltjens were very grateful to this friendly traveler. Suzanne said the only bad thing about the trip is that it didn't last long enough.

BILL AND ALLEN Downing have returned from a fishing trip to Canada. I didn't learn the particulars about the trip, but they told my husband, Steve, that they sure had a good time.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON I took an enjoyable time-machine ride. I listened to Claude Zevely give a talk and it was as if I were a junior in college again sitting in Education 360 and being filled with the lofty aims of being a teacher. Mr. Zevely is a gifted teacher at any level, but on this particular occasion he was addressing about 30 young women at a Junior Forum meeting. But he still was giving his listeners the aspiration to reach out to children and say the right words to help them mature in a wonderful way. He calls this "a gift for a lifetime." Thank you, Mr. Zevely.

WELL, THAT IS all for this week. If anyone wants to have an item put in my column, please call me at 655-9978.

Bufs Trample Lamar 13-0

West Texas State University's Buffaloes snapped a three-game losing streak and recorded their first football shutout in 28 games Saturday night in Beaumont by handing Lamar University a 13-0 beating.

Although head football coach Gene Mayfield wasn't entirely pleased with the team's offensive and defensive efforts during the game, he was elated with the team's defensive efforts against short yardage situations.

Twice in the fourth quarter Lamar drove inside the Buffaloes' 10-yard line, only to be halted at the three- and five-yard lines.

The Buffaloes are open this week and host rugged Utah State in a non-conference game at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 20 in Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium. The Oct. 20 contest will be homecoming at West Texas State and will climax a full day of activity on the campus for alumni and boosters.

The Aggies, under new coach Phil Krueger, are 3-1 for the season, going into this week's game at Fort Collins, Colo., against Colorado State University. The Aggies have beaten Weber State, University of Nevada - Las Vegas and Brigham Young and suffered a loss to San Diego State.

Geologist Speaks To WTSU Students

Dr. Romeo Flores, chairman of the geology department at Sul Ross State University, spoke at West Texas State University Friday.

He was presented by the WTSU Geological Society and the geology department which also conducted their fall field trip Saturday.

Earth science students from WTSU, Sul Ross, Frank Phillips College, Clarendon Junior College and Amarillo College and members of the Panhandle Geological Society were invited to the field trip.

The trip included stops north of Matador in Motley County, near Wayside in Armstrong County and at Palo Duro Canyon.

Committee Meets Today On Food, Fiber Week Here

Members of various committees involved in this year's Randall County Food and Fiber Appreciation Week will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the county courtroom of the Canyon courthouse.

Food and Fiber Appreciation Week is scheduled in mid-November for the county and will feature exhibits to be displayed on two or three days at the elementary and possibly junior high schools.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe is scheduled to make an appearance at the exhibits. County Judge Woody Pond is chairman of the week's activities.

Pancake Meal To Highlight Homecoming

A new feature of this year's Homecoming activities at West Texas State University will be a pancake supper, Oct. 17.

"We're going to try to raise enough money to get a good scholarship fund underway," said Ben Garrett, Amarillo senior who heads the WTSU Rodeo Club.

"We decided on the pancake supper in the commercial exhibits building at the Tri-State Fairgrounds because they've been so popular there in the past," he said.

"For too long," Garrett said, "the good high school rodeo performers have left the Panhandle for downstate schools offering rodeo scholarships. We hope to put a stop to that by offering several scholarships at West Texas State."

The 5-10 p.m. feed will feature the traditional pancakes, sausage, coffee and all the trimmings at $2 a plate.

The rodeo club has already received a helping hand from the Jimmy Dean Meat Packing Co. of Plainview who donated 780 pounds of sausage, Garrett said.

Persons desiring to donate money or supplies for the event should contact Garrett at Box 442, W.T. Station, Canyon 79016.

Locals Win In Amarillo Competition

Several Canyon youths made good showings last weekend in the Amarillo zone punt, pass and kick competition in Amarillo.

Eddie Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clement, placed first in the 12-year-old division with 273 points. Todd Looney, son of Mrs. Lynda Looney, placed third in the 9-year-old division.

Eddie will compete Saturday in Oklahoma City in the regional competition. Winners there progress to Dallas. National finals will be at the Super Bowl Jan. 25 in Houston.

Eddie is making his third trip to Oklahoma City for the competition. He placed third both other times he competed.

Other local participants in the Amarillo event were Dann Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thompson; Kirk Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyndell Moore; Jack Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hayes and James Irbeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Irbeck.

We don't believe it should take big money to make big money.

Daddy Warbucks is a myth. A myth that's vanishing along with diamond stickpins. And $10 cigars. The same goes for the idea that it takes a lot of money to make a lot of money. Big interest rates no longer belong exclusively to the guys with big money. Because, at First National Bank in Canyon the SMALL INVESTOR can find a common interest with the big investor—the interest on Top Dollar Certificates of Deposit.

Our regular savings programs, earns as much money as it legally can, and you can withdraw it on a moment's notice. First National Bank, Canyon, can also get the ball rolling on a personal loan, a new checking account, a Master Charge Card. Or he can help straighten out almost any other budget problem. So getting together with First National Bank, Canyon, will prove richly rewarding.

Federal law and regulation prohibits the payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of the interest thereon is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the passbook rate.
